Dear Plan Participant:

On the reverse side, please find a Beneficiary Designation Form.

Please review the information listed below prior to completing this Form.

You must complete and return a Beneficiary Designation Form at the time of initial enrollment or any time you have a change in life circumstances (e.g. marriage, separation, divorce, etc.). If you decide to change your Beneficiary at any time, you must complete and return a new Beneficiary Designation Form. If you are not certain about who you previously designated as your Beneficiary, a new Beneficiary Designation Form should be completed. You may change your Beneficiary at any time (with spousal consent if married).

This Form allows you to designate your desired Beneficiary in the event of your death. If you fail to designate a Beneficiary or no designated Beneficiary survives you, distribution of any benefits will be made to the first surviving class of the following classes of successive preference beneficiaries: (a) your spouse, if any, and if none; (b) in equal shares to your children, natural or adopted; if none survive you; (c) in equal shares to your parents; or if none, then (d) in equal shares to your brothers and sisters; if none, then (e) your estate. This does not include stepchildren, stepbrother(s) and stepsister(s).

If you are currently married and would like to designate someone other than your spouse, after you complete the Beneficiary Designation Form, your spouse would then need to complete the Spousal Consent section at the bottom of this page and sign it before a Notary Public. By signing this consent, your spouse is authorizing the designation of your alternate Beneficiary.

If you would like to designate a minor child(ren), you should also list a Legal Guardian who would be responsible for your child(ren) in the event of your death. If you are married and listing your spouse as your primary Beneficiary and any child(ren) as your alternate, you should list a Legal Guardian, other than yourself and your spouse.

The Beneficiary Designation Form must be completed in black or blue ink only. Forms may be considered invalid if they are (a) not completed in black or blue ink (b) not completed in full; or (c) contain any type of alteration (e.g. correction tape, white out, etc.).

Please be aware that if your Beneficiary Designation Form is deemed invalid, you will be required to complete a new Beneficiary Designation Form in its entirety. Should you pass away prior to the Trust Fund Office receiving a valid Beneficiary Designation Form, you will be considered to have died without a designated Beneficiary. Additionally, if you have any changes or updates to a Beneficiary Designation Form you already have on file, you are required to complete a new Beneficiary Designation Form in its entirety.

Please be aware that additional Forms and/or documentation may be required before your Beneficiary Designation Form can be processed. We will contact you via letter in the event that additional Forms and/or documentation are required.

To be considered valid, this Beneficiary Designation Form must be received by the Trust Fund Office prior to your death.

You may designate the same person (one person) to receive all Funds [Health and Welfare, Pension and Supplemental 401(k) Retirement] by completing the BENEFICIARY FOR ALL FUNDS section or you may designate different persons (multiple persons) to receive these separate Funds, by completing each of the Health and Welfare, Pension and Supplemental 401(k) Retirement sections under BENEFICIARY FOR SEPARATE FUNDS. Note: It is assumed that benefits for each separate Fund will be distributed equally among all Beneficiaries listed unless otherwise specified.

For the Health Reimbursement Account (HRA), the Internal Revenue Code requires that a lawful Beneficiary is only your lawful spouse, child or other lawful dependent(s) enrolled in the Plan.

Please be aware that if you designate a living trust, you must provide the full legal name of the trust, the date the trust was signed and indicate whether it is a revocable or irrevocable trust. A full copy of the trust and all related documents must be submitted at the time of the Participant's death. If you designate a living trust, payments are only allowed in the form of a lump sum.

If you later become divorced prior to your retirement, your Beneficiary designation of your spouse for all Funds is automatically revoked. Similarly, if you marry, any prior Beneficiary designation will be deemed invalid.

Should you have any questions on completing this Form or require additional information, please contact the Trust Fund Office at 925/356-8921.

SPOUSAL CONSENT

If you are married and designate a beneficiary other than your spouse, he/she must give written consent below and have it notarized for each of the Funds (Pension Fund, Health and Welfare Fund, Supplemental 401(k) Retirement Fund). I _____ (Spouse's name), hereby consent to the designation of the Beneficiary named on the reverse side and understand that any benefits due as a result of my Husband's/Wife's death will be paid to the named Beneficiary.
